

THREE NEW CLASSES FOR FALL 2010

PSC 325	Civil Rights Movement	3 credit hours
This course examines the civil rights movement from 1954 to 1980s; based on PBS series: Eyes on the Prize. Identical to PHL 345, REL 345, SOC 345.
Credit may not be earned in more than one of these courses.
Prerequisites: Any one of the following: HST 110, HST 111, HST 112, LAR 145, PSC 100, PSC 125, REL 140, SOC 100 (University Program Group IV-C)
22143161	M W 05:00-06:15PM	Anspach 152 Johnson, Sterling
PSC 598A	Engaging Citizen Decision-Making	3 credit hours
This course will explore ways to facilitate citizen participation in the political process with special emphasis on the role of deliberation as a way to coordinate collective action and to facilitate citizen participation in policy making. CR/NC option available.
22132340	W 06:30-09:20PM	Anspach 254 Strachan, Jayne
PSC 598B	Admin & Ethics in Public Service	3 credit hours
How can a public administrator effectively do their job as required by their superiors while remaining true to principles of ethics, professional standards, democratic values, and the public good? This course will examine the particular ethical problems faced by participants in a modern bureaucratic system that is based on principles of technical rationality and on methods for resolving those problems. CR/NC option available.
22132339	M 06:30-09:20PM	Anspach 258 Clayton, Edward