

SUBJECT: RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

Effective with the 2007-2008 academic year, a maximum of 34 graduate fellowships is authorized:

16 doctoral research fellowships at	$12,250
18 graduate research and diversity fellowships at	$10,000

With approval of the graduate dean, the stipend for the doctoral research fellowships may be increased using funds donated to the university.

In addition to the stipend, all fellowships include a tuition scholarship for up to 24 credit hours per year during the fall and spring semesters and the summer sessions.

During the academic year of their award and the subsequent summer, recipients of university research fellowships are classified as Michigan residents for tuition purposes. Recipients of doctoral fellowships are classified as Michigan residents for the balance of their program.
