Comments: Reviewers compliment the clear and well written narrative in the content guidelines/standards matrix, the experience and qualifications of the faculty, the MTTC passing percentages, and the program summary. The institution is encouraged to begin collecting program performance outcome data related to the Middle Level standards because program performance will be the basis of subsequent periodic reviews.  This course work is part of a graduate program that requires completion of 36 semester hours leading to Master of Arts in Middle Level Education.
