

Application Procedure

The application process for the CMUDI Dietetic Internship is a two-step process. It includes the computer matching process through D&D Digital Systems, and the on-line application through Dietetic Internship Centralized Application Services (DICAS),.

Applicants must complete the steps on the following document, pay all fees required, and complete all instructions for each step in order to be considered for the internship.