Class Participation:
A student's participation grade will be based on the Instructor’s assessment of the quality of the student's constructive contributions to the learning experiences of all course participants. Participation will be evaluated on the basis of (1) the regularity of the students’ participation, (2) whether the students take the leading roles in certain discussions, (3) asking reading-informed questions about course subject matter, and (5) in a group, whether the students play the roles of leaders and followers well.

Late Assignments:
Late assignments receive zero credit unless pre-approved by the professor, and are only accepted with emergency documentation, then with a 10% penalty per day late.

Make-ups and Rewrites:
None. There will be no extra-credit assignments or extra-credit work accepted at any time during this course.

Attendance Policy:
Attendance, demonstrated in task participation, is mandatory to be able to contribute in a timely manner to course learning experiences. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

General:
1. Academic Dishonesty: Written or other work which a student submits must be the product of her/his own efforts. Plagiarism, cheating and other forms of academic dishonesty, including dishonesty involving computer technology, are prohibited. Further information on Academic Dishonesty can be found in the current Bulletin.
2. ADA: CMU provides individuals with disabilities reasonable accommodations to participate in educational programs, activities and services. Students with disabilities requiring accommodations to participate in class activities or meet course requirements should contact Student Disability Services at 989-774-3018 or by e-mail at sds@cmich.edu at least 4-6 weeks prior to the start of class. SDS is located in the Park Library, room 120. Students may find additional information and forms at http://www.cmich.edu/Student_Disability_Services.htm.
