Right Wing Extremism in Central & Eastern Europe

Monday, March 24
8 p.m. in the Bovee U.C. Auditorium
Central Michigan University

Holocaust expert Zoltán Tibori Szabó will discuss the rise of the extremist political parties since the fall of the communist regimes in Central and Eastern Europe, how they are achieving success in local, national and European elections, why this is happening, and what can be done to halt the spread of extremism.

Dr. Zoltán Tibori Szabó, Associate Professor at Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj, Romania, is a distinguished author, educator and investigative journalist. His main interests include Transylvanian history, the history of the press, media law, and the Holocaust in Romania & Hungary.

Guests are invited to attend a dessert reception following the talk.

Free admission. Open to the public.
chsbs.cmich.edu/abel

About the Abel Lecture Series
The Dr. Harold Abel Endowed Lecture Series in the Study of Dictatorship, Democracy and Genocide was established in 2009. The series invites to campus distinguished scholars to discuss the impact of worldwide genocide and historical events such as the Holocaust and mass murders in Africa, Southeast Asia, and Central America. For more information, visit www.chsbs.cmich.edu/abel.