The department offers three majors: Political Science, International Relations, and Public and Nonprofit Administration. All students will develop analytic and deliberative skills that will prepare them to become engaged citizens in a pluralistic, global society. They will learn to think critically, write well, and speak with confidence. Students also are exposed to a variety of methods of examining information.
Program highlights

Majors in Political Science, International Relations, or Public & Nonprofit Administration

Optional certificates: Citizen Engagement, Lawmaking & Legal Processes, Political Advocacy & Elections, Global Governance & Advocacy, Governance of Nations, International Security Studies, International Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) Administration, Public Policy Analysis, or Public & Social Entrepreneurship

Minors in Political Science, Public Administration or Public Affairs

Internship opportunities at state, national, and international organizations, including The Washington Center

Accelerated MA program that lets you start your master’s degree during your senior year

Career options

» Activist, Advocate/Organizer
» Attorney
» Campaign Operative and Manager
» CIA Analyst or Agent
» City and County Manager
» Congressional Office/Committee Staffer
» Foreign Service Officer

» Human Resources Dir.
» International Agency Officer
» International Research Specialist
» Legislative Assistant
» Lobbyist
» Policy Analyst
» Pollster
» Public Affairs Director
» Public Relations

For information

Department of Political Science & Public Administration

Anspach Hall 247
Mount Pleasant, MI 48859
989-774-3442
www.chsbs.cmich.edu/political_science

facebook.com/cmupolisci twitter.com/CmichPoliSci

cmich.edu/chsbs

CMU is an AA/EO institution, providing equal opportunity to all persons, including minorities, females, veterans and individuals with disabilities (see cmich.edu/ocrie). Produced by CHSBS (6/2016)