The mission of the School of Public Service and Global Citizenship at Central Michigan University is to cultivate global citizenship and ethical public service by promoting innovative learning, research, and active civic engagement.
Enduring Principles
Encourage and develop creative leaders who exemplify integrity, act from a global perspective and value diversity, and work toward social justice

Engage in research, community outreach and partnerships that promote environmental and economic sustainability, justice, and innovative solutions to world problems

Promote public service and responsible citizenship grounded in ethical principles

Affiliated Programs
» Cultural and Global Studies
» Cultural Resource Management
» Humanities
» Master of Public Administration
» Museum Studies
» Women and Gender Studies

Affiliated Centers & Institutes
» Center for Applied Research and Rural Studies (CARRS)
» Center for Professional and Personal Ethics
» Central Assessment Lending Library
» Central Autism Assessment & Treatment Center
» Chippewa River Writing Project
» Civic Engagement and Public Service Division
» English Language Institute (ELI)
» Great Lakes Institute for Sustainable Systems (GLISS)
» Institute for Simulations and Games
» Law Professions Center

For Information
School of Public Service and Global Citizenship
Anspach Hall 106
Central Michigan University
Mount Pleasant, MI 48859
989-774-3822
Email: spsgc@cmich.edu
www.chsbs.cmich.edu/spsgc