Holy Land, homeland, hotbed . . .

Israel/Palestine’s centrality to great monotheistic traditions has also spawned competing claims to its custody. This course explores the region’s history – along with pertinent archaeological and historical issues, questions, and controversies - from the Neolithic to now, incorporating insights and interpretations from modern and recent academic scholarship.

Dr. John Robertson | rober1j@cmich.edu | Powers 205