Social and Digital Media Intern at Bryan Mielke for State Representative

Are you obsessed with finding and sharing stories online? Do your friends look to you on Facebook and Twitter for the latest trends, political news, and online memes? This is the campaign for you!

Looking for a progressive with experience in running social media pages in the past, knowledge of social media algorithms, creative mindset, someone who is thoughtful when interacting with online communities and building relationships, and ready to make a difference within the community, bringing energy and enthusiasm to the campaign.

Social and Digital Media Internship Responsibilities

- Will play an active role in the development and maintenance of the campaign’s social media pages.
- Maintain presence on various social media platforms and help create and publish content that is relevant to our race, the 99th district, and Michigan politics.
- Analyze and report on the activity on social media networks.
- Assist in maintaining the campaign’s archive of digital images, videos, and other content.
- As an intern you will learn how to reach communities, run political pages, promote events or programs through the social media and gain experience in political campaigns and social media platforms from a political perspective.
