

LA VIE ÉLECTRIQUE. — Les cours par téléphonscope.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY VIRTUAL EVENTS SPRING 2021

February 2021

Friday, February 12, 2:00-4:00pm – “So You Want to be an Adjunct: Navigating the Temporary Job Market,” Dr. Dale Moler, Northwood University and Lansing Community College. Sponsored by the Department of History “Beyond CMU” Speaker Series. Event will be hosted on WebEx. Link coming soon.

Thursday, February 18, 7:30pm – Virtual Conversation with Art Spiegelman, author and illustrator of Maus: A Survivor’s Tale (the Pulitzer Prize-winning graphic novel on the Holocaust). Sponsored by the Dr. Harold Abel Endowed Lecture Series in the Study of Dictatorship, Democracy and Genocide and the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences Critical Engagements initiative. See Critical Engagements website for more info.

March 2021

Friday, March 12, 2:00-4:00pm – “Making the Most of Your Graduate Degree,” Dr. Jason Morgan Ward, Director of History Graduate Studies, Emory University. Sponsored by the Department of History “Beyond CMU” Speaker Series. Event will be hosted on WebEx. Link coming soon.

April 2021

Friday, April 16, 10:30am-11:45am – “Terror Flyers: The Lynching of American Airmen in Nazi Germany” (Book Talk and Q&A), Dr. Kevin T. Hall, Ruhr-Universität Bochum. Event will be hosted on WebEx. Link: <https://cmich.webex.com/cmich/onstage/g.php?MTID=e5bd5aa36a31ee9056ef-1a414ff3f9608>

Events and event details may be subject to change. For the most up-to-date Events Calendar, please visit <https://www.cmich.edu/colleges/class/History/Pages/News-and-Social-Media.aspx>

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS
& SOCIAL SCIENCES

HISTORY

CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY