The Robert and Marjorie Griffin Endowed Chair in American Government presents:

The Future of Gambling in Michigan

Wednesday, April 14
Park Library Auditorium
7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

Forum Panelists

- Audrey Falcon, chief, Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe
- Joe Garcia, general counsel, Michigan Racing Association
- Dr. James Hill, professor, CMU Political Science Department
- Larry Julian, State Representative and Speaker of the House Pro-Tempore
- Roger Martin, Citizens for Fair and Responsible Gaming
- Gary Peters, commissioner, Michigan Bureau of State Lottery
- Dr. Rex Rogers, president, Cornerstone University
- John Truscott, former press secretary, former Gov. John Engler

Moderator: Tim Skubick, host/moderator, WKAR’s “Off the Record”

Discussion Topics

- The consequences of gambling expansion in the state
- Using gambling revenues to meet state budget deficits
- Whether to approve additional Native American casinos in the state
- Whether the state should approve the expansion of gambling to “racinos”

The Griffin policy forums are hosted each semester by the Robert and Marjorie Griffin Endowed Chair in American Government, the Department of Political Science, and the College of Humanities and Social & Behavioral Sciences. Call (989) 774-3442 or visit www.chsbs.cmich.edu/Political_Science/ for more information.

CMU, an AA/EO institution, strongly and actively strives to increase diversity within its community (see http://www.cmich.edu/aaeo). Individuals with disabilities who need accommodations should call (989) 774-3442 at least one week before the event.