

EES Dissertation Rubric

Student: _____

Dissertation Presentation

Organization: Follows logical and interesting sequence

Graphics: Enhances understanding and easily interpreted

Writing: No misspellings or grammatical errors

Speaking: Maintains eye contact and speaks in a clear voice with precise pronunciation of terms

Superior Satisfactory Unsatisfactory

Dissertation

Organization: Follows logical sequence; Content structured in typical manner for discipline

Graphics: Enhances understanding and easily interpreted

Writing Mechanics: No grammatical or structural errors;

Relevance and Clarity: Ideas and concepts are clearly presented; All content is relevant to the proposal idea / objectives

Content

Significance: Research idea makes an important or meaningful contribution to science and society

Literature Review: Research idea is placed within previous research with demonstration of understanding of previous research in the field

Hypothesis and/or Objectives: Research hypothesis and/or objectives are clearly defined and reasonable

Methods: Methods are appropriate for research objectives and well described and justified

Results: Clearly described and linked to research questions/objectives

Discussion and Conclusions: Interpret and summarize results; Place results in larger context

Accuracy & Logic: Information and concept are accurate and Logical

Overall evaluation: Superior Satisfactory Unsatisfactory

Advisor:

Committee Member:

Committee Member:

Committee Member:

Committee Member:
