WELCOME TO HOMECOMING

Homecoming is one of the most thrilling events in the college year. While it is planned so as to honor our alumni who have returned to campus, it includes all the students, faculty and friends of the University.

For those who were students here in years past, it is an opportunity to meet again friends of yesterday and to see the campus—some of it familiar and some of it new. For our nearly two thousand new students, the spirit of Central will begin to take on a deeper meaning and reality as they realize that they are now a part of Central Michigan University with its worthy traditions, illustrious alumni and challenging educational program.

DEAN RONALD W. FINCH

Ronald Finch, Dean of Central's School of Health and Physical Education, began his collegiate coaching career at Central in 1937 after coaching for 12 years in Michigan high schools. As a high school coach, Finch tutored two state track championship teams and the 39 straight football wins his Lowell prep squad compiled is still believed to be a state record.

Finch received his B.S. Degree from Central Michigan in 1932 and his M.A. degree from Columbia University in 1942. He has done additional graduate study at Michigan State University.

As a football coach at Central, he compiled a record of 52 wins, 18 losses and two ties from 1937 to 1946. That record stands as the second best in the 64-year football history of the school. From 1937 to 1946 he also coached the Chippewa track team to some of its finest moments.

Finch was named as the first dean of the School of Health and Physical Education at Central when it was first organized in 1959 after he had served for many years as head of the department.

DANIEL P. ROSE

Daniel P. Rose, Athletic Director at Central since 1942, first joined the CMU staff in 1937 as head basketball and baseball coach. He also coached the freshman football team and taught courses in health and physical education.

Rose gave up his basketball coaching duties in 1954 after his teams had won 176 and lost 84 games in 14 seasons. Only twice in that time did Rose-coached basketball teams drop below the .500 mark. Because of his increasing duties as athletic director, he also had to relinquish his baseball coaching job in 1952.

Before joining the staff at Central, Rose coached eight years at Grand Rapids South high school where his teams won three city championships in basketball. During his undergraduate days at the University of Michigan, Rose was an All-American and All-Big Ten basketball guard, one of the smallest in history.

Introducing Queen Marsha Young

Reigning over this weekend's Homecoming festivities is Marsha Young, brown-eyed sophomore coed from Albion.

Marsha was elected 1961 Homecoming Queen after a unique campaign which included a military escort to and from classes and the erecting of nine-foot teepees throughout the campus. The ROTC Drill Team sponsored her.

Miss Young, 18, graduated from Albion High School in 1960 and served on the homecoming court there in her senior year. At Central she is majoring in English.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Young of 809 Hall Street, Albion.

Central, despite its disappointing record this season, takes a great tradition of Homecoming football victories into today's battle with Northern Illinois.

In the past eleven years, Chippewa teams have won ten Homecoming games, losing only to Louisville in 1958.

Central's Homecoming victims over the past eleven years include each of the six teams in the Interstate Conference and Bowling Green.

Northern Illinois, today's opponent, has been a victim of Central's Homecoming onslaught three times, all by convincingly one-sided scores.

The Huskies last fell in 1959 when Central utilized an alert defense to romp to a 29-7 victory. In 1957 Northern fell, 52-12, and in 1946 the Chips pounded out a 58-7 win before enthusiastic alumni.

Last year's Homecoming game with Eastern Michigan turned out to be a 28-0 CMU win, but it came only after a stubborn, underdog Eastern squad held the Chips to a 7-0 margin going into the final three minutes of play. Central exploded with a touchdown a minute in the last three minutes of action.

Over the past 15 years, Central has compiled a 12-3 Homecoming game record.

★ ★ ★ TODAY'S GAME ★ ★ ★

At stake in today's Homecoming game, Bill Kelly's 100th as Central head coach, is fourth place in the Interstate Conference standings and a chance for the Chippewas to save themselves from falling to the worst IIAC record and finish in CMU history.

Central takes a 1-6 overall mark and a 1-3 league record into today's contest. Northern is 2-3-1 overall and 1-1-1 in conference play. An upset by the Chips before today's huge Homecoming gathering would vault them into fourth ahead of the Huskies.

But a loss would assure Central of compiling its worst IIAC record since joining the league in 1950. Central's worst conference record in 11 seasons in the loop was last year's 3-3 mark and fourth place finish.

To keep from falling into the depths of the Interstate standings today, Central has its work cut out for it.

First, its limping offense, which has been able to average only 156 yards a game, must move against the Huskies. Secondly, Central's porous pass defense will have to tighten up to stop Northern's vaunted aerial bombardment.

Figuring heavily in the outcome of today's battle will be the performances of underclassmen on both teams. Northern, in an effort to bolster its defense, is expected to play six freshmen on its defensive team.

The Chippewas will counter with some young talent also. First-year man Gary Harrington is expected to lead the team from quarterback and his prime passing target may well be frosh Bill Johnson at right end.

Central's backfield is also a young one. In addition to Harrington there are sophomores Len Jagello, Steve Walzak, Chuck Koons and Ted Pavoris. The only upperclassman expected to see much action in the backfield, in fact, is junior Bob Fisher, last year's leading rusher and scorer.

The Chippewas, however, will take the field today without the services of sophomore kicking expert Tom Davis, the Clawson guard who has booted eight of eight extra points this season. Davis broke his right leg in last week's 13-11 victory over Eastern Michigan.

Huskies -- Like Chips -- Seek To Save Face

Football disappointments haven't been limited to Central Michigan this fall. Northern Illinois' Huskies have had to swallow a few of their own since opening play back on Sept. 16.

Northern finished third in the Interstate Conference last season with a 4-2 record to equal the best league record a Huskie squad turned in since the championship team of 1951.

Pre-season estimates around the league had Northern slated for a runner-up finish behind favored Southern. After all, the argument went, Northern still has a tough line, great passing in George Bork and Tom Beck, and Coach Howard Fletcher announced last spring that his running game might be the best in his five-year history at NIU.

Northern opened the season with a better-than-expected 49-0 romp over Northwest Missouri. And then the roof caved in.

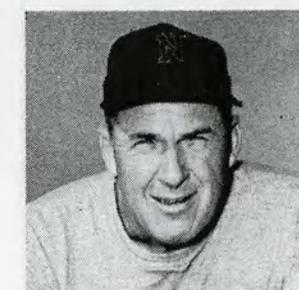

Wheaton College pulled a 7-2 upset, Northeast Missouri added a 28-13 defeat, Southern Illinois lent a 35-6 pounding and then two weeks ago, underdog Eastern Illinois came back from a 20-0 halftime deficit to fight the Huskies to a 20-20 tie.

But last week the Huskies snapped back with a 23-22 Homecoming upset of league-leading Western Illinois. The victory served as evidence that Northern hasn't lost all that punch pre-season experts claimed it had.

Now the Huskies find themselves in fourth place in the conference with as unpredictable a team as Fletcher could have envisioned in his worst dreams.

The passing attack has been clicking but enemy runners have found room for knifing through Northern's flanks. If the Huskies can plug that hole in the line and keep their offensive game in motion, a good IIAC season can still be salvaged.

Northern's "B-Boys", Tom Beck (right) and George Bork present a formidable passing profile for Huskie opponents this season. The two backs are aerial experts and are important cogs in NIU's offensive machinery.

Coach Howard Fletcher

NEXT WEEK: HILLSDALE

Next Saturday the Chippewas take a break from Interstate Conference play, but hardly a break from tough competition. Coming to Alumni Field next week is Hillsdale, that giant of the small-college football world and a gridiron arch-rival of the Chippewas.

The Central-Hillsdale game next Saturday marks the renewal of a bitter, though not frequent, rivalry which last saw the two teams meeting in 1958 when the Chips took a 19-13 decision in the Red Feather game.

In all, the two squads have met eight times since the first game in 1903. Hillsdale has won four, lost three and tied one against Central.

The Hillsdale-Central game also brings together two of Michigan's winningest coaches, rivals Bill Kelly and Frank "Muddy" Waters.

Introducing The Chippewa Coaching Staff

KENNETH "BILL" KELLY—HEAD COACH

This season marks Bill Kelly's 32nd year in the coaching profession and his 11th season as head coach at Central Michigan.

Kelly attended Central from 1926 to 1930. After his graduation he coached at Cass City, Mt. Pleasant and Saginaw Arthur Hill before returning to CMU in 1951 as football and tennis coach. He coached CMU varsity basketball from 1954-56.

During his ten years at the helm at Central, Kelly's teams have won 65, lost 26 and tied one to establish him as the most winning coach in school history. In the Interstate Conference his teams have won or shared five titles, going undefeated in 1952 and 1956.

An outspoken, colorful grid-master, Kelly was named Michigan "Coach of the Year" following the 1959 season. He is credited with playing an important role in building Central into a recognized small-college football power.

Kelly is married and the father of two daughters.

here last year. He served as line coach on the CMU freshman team last fall and worked with the varsity during spring drills.

As a CMU guard, he was an All-Interstate conference first team selection in 1960, his senior year. A 1956 Grand Rapids Catholic Central high school graduate, he was named to a first string All-City team berth and was a third team All-State tackle selection.

Probably the youngest collegiate coach in Michigan, Sieracki is single.

ALFRED THOMAS—BACKFIELD COACH

Al Thomas, a former University of Michigan backfield and track star, has been responsible for the bright performances of Central's backs since joining the staff in 1949.

He graduated from Michigan in 1942 after winning All-American track honors and serving as captain of the Wolverine track squad in his senior year. He received his doctor's degree from the University of Indiana.

Thomas came to Central after coaching at Ishpeming high school for a year and at William and Mary for two years. At Central he also serves as assistant track coach and annually runs the nation's largest high school track meet, the Central Michigan University Relays.

Thomas is married and the father of two daughters.

JERRY SIERACKI—LINE COACH

Sieracki, 22-year-old former CMU lineman, joined the staff only this fall replacing Bill Figg who resigned in the spring.

Sieracki, from Grand Rapids, graduated from Central in 1960 and served as a graduate assistant

Gary Finnin
Junior End

Gary Finnin joined the Chippewa gridiron corps two years ago as one of 1959's "Young Giants" brigade which included such bright rookie prospects as Mick DeVoe, Don Schmidt, George Alward and John Furman.

Since his first season with the Chips—when he broke into the starting lineup almost immediately—Finnin has become no bigger, but a little wiser to the ways of college football.

After spending some time as a tackle, he has come back as an end and ranks as one of CMU's top linemen both defensively and offensively.

Although his 6-foot 3½ frame and 217 pounds gives him a tackle's appearance, Finnin has fair speed and his hands are as sure as anyone's when it comes to catching passes.

A junior, Finnin is a 20-year-old physical education major from Flint's Holy Redeemer high. He and his wife Donna are the parents of a son, John.

Sophomore halfback

Scampering little Lennie Jagello has to look up to see almost anyone when he takes the football field, but he often looks back once the game gets underway.

Jagello is a small 5-foot-8 halfback who learned early last season, in his freshman year, that the best place for an opposing football player is behind you. With good speed and a quick start, he's left a few there too.

Probably his most memorable gridiron moment came early in the CMU-Southern Illinois game last year when he dropped a handoff on a kickoff, recovered the loose ball and dashed 80 yards through a host of the opposition to give Central a short-lived lead.

Jagello, from Detroit's St. Bernard high, came on at mid-season last year to take over a starting halfback spot. This year he has been hampered by leg injuries.
