1. If you have a general concern or question about a research facility or animals and their care at Central Michigan University, you may contact the appropriate animal facility emergency contact.
2. Any person who is concerned about animal care or use in a specific class or research project may contact the responsible faculty member or individuals listed above.
3. Formal complaints concerning animal use and/or deficiencies in the care of animals used in teaching or research should be directed to the IACUC or Office of Research Compliance.

The IACUC will promptly investigate any report submitted to the committee and will maintain confidentiality to the extent permissible under the law regarding the source of the report it receives. The IACUC will evaluate concerns according to the Animal Welfare Act, Public Health Service Policy and CMU Policy. No individual who, in good faith, reports a concern or files a complaint shall be discriminated against or subject to any reprisal.
