Alumni Feedback

The strength(s) of my program were:

“Strong, amazing, and compassionate faculty members who care about students' success inside and outside the classroom, the cohort model, course formats and sequencing that support working professionals, course assignments that were flexible enough that students could complete them about different professional settings, broad experiences and diverse backgrounds of peers in courses enhanced class discussions and environment”

---

“I really liked the flexibility and asynchronous format. This supported my needs as a single parent working full time.”

---

“Very relevant content and up to date with current research/practice”

---

“Fully online and asynchronous. Same professors for multiple classes throughout the program allowed for great continuity and thinking ahead.”
