Robert & Marge Mills Endowed Scholarship

Seeking a degree or advanced Certification in K-12? Yes No Living in a rural area? Yes No
Parent/guardian of minor children? Yes No

Scholarship Criteria: Established in 2017 by Robert and Marge Mills, this scholarship will support an EDL student who is seeking a degree or advanced certification in the K-12 area. Recipients will be currently enrolled in a Department of Educational Leadership degree program with a GPA of 3.0 or higher. Preference will be given to students who are parents, living in a rural area. The award is renewable for up to two years, with continuous enrollment and a cumulative 3.0 or higher GPA (based on the availability of funds). To be considered for an additional year, the student must reapply and be part of the selection process the following year. Withdrawal from Central Michigan University will cancel the scholarship.

Essay Criteria: Applications are reviewed holistically. Applications must include the submission of an essay related to how the scholarship award will advance the mission of EDL (listed below). A team of EDL faculty will review essays submitted by the deadline. Successful applicants will submit a cogent, one-page essay related to how the funds will help the student's vision of degree attainment and/or advanced certification in K-12.
