

HEALTH PROFESSIONS

COMMUNICATION SCIENCES AND DISORDERS

CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Communication is Central: A Professional Learning Event Series

Presents:

Identification of Autism Spectrum Disorder Across Contexts

Friday, April 21, 2023 ~ 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. • FREE Event • Held Virtually

Presenters:

AnnMarie Bates, M.S., CCC-SLP is a Master Clinical Speech Language Pathology Clinical Educator in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at Central Michigan University (CMU). She received her Masters of Science in Speech Language Pathology from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

Relevant Financial Disclosures - receives a salary from Central Michigan University. Relevant Nonfinancial Disclosures - None.

MaryBeth Smith, M.A., CCC-SLP is a faculty member and clinical educator in speech-language pathology for the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at Central Michigan University. She has over 30 years of pediatric experience with specialty interests in autism spectrum disorders, speech sound disorders, and family partnerships..

Relevant Financial Disclosures - receives a salary from Central Michigan University. Relevant Nonfinancial Disclosures - None.

Melissa Tuttle, Ph.D. is a School Psychologist/BCBA at North Central Ohio Educational Service Center. She received a Doctor of Philosophy in School Psychology from CMU and is a licensed psychologist, certified school psychologist, and board-certified behavior analyst. Her areas of professional specialty are autism assessment and behavioral intervention.

Relevant Financial Disclosures - None. Relevant Nonfinancial Disclosures - None.

Course Description:

In this course participants will learn the similarities between the clinical and educational diagnosis of autism, understand and explain the roles and assessment information collection within an interdisciplinary team, and review a case study to determine eligibility across contexts based on evaluation results.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Describe the similarities between clinical and educational identification of autism.
2. Explain the purpose and utility of interdisciplinary evaluation teams.
3. Review case study assessment results and determine if eligibility criteria is met.

Agenda:

12:00-12:05 p.m.	Introduction
12:05-12:15 p.m.	DSM-V and MARSE Criterion Comparison
12:15-12:20 p.m.	Interdisciplinary Team
12:20-12:35 p.m.	Evaluation of ASD in a Variety of Contexts
12:35-12:50 p.m.	Case Study Evaluation Results and Discussion
12:50-1:00 p.m.	Questions & Answers

Register Today at: bit.ly/3QxQMd4

Free Event - (Registration closes on 4/16/23)

The link for the virtual Professional Learning Event Series will be sent to your email address prior to the event.

Continuing Education:

ASHA CE APPROVED PROVIDER

Central Michigan University
Department of Communication
Sciences and Disorders

Intermediate Level
0.10 ASHA CEUs