

Application Procedure

The application process for the CMUDI Dietetic Internship is a two-step process. It includes:

1. Registering for the computer matching process through D&D Digital Systems, and
2. Completing the on-line application through Dietetic Internship Centralized Application Services (DICAS).

Applicants must complete the steps of the application procedure, complete all instructions for each step, and pay all required fees, in order to be considered for the internship.
