

Parent-Child Interaction Therapy

Assistant Trainer Bio Irene Brodd, MA

IRENE BRODD MA, conducts research and clinical work in the area of Parent-Child Interaction Therapy, with a focus on enhancing parents' use of safe and effective discipline strategies. Ms. Brodd frequently serves as an Assistant Trainer with PCIT Master Trainer, Dr. Larissa Niec. Ms. Brodd has assisted in training therapists throughout Michigan and the United States. She is a contributing author to the forthcoming Handbook of Parent-Child Interaction Therapy: Innovations and Applications for Research and Practice (Springer, 2018). Prior to her enrollment in the doctoral Clinical Psychology program at Central Michigan University, Ms. Brodd earned her Master of Arts in Psychology at California State University, Sacramento.