

JETT WHITEHEAD, CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY'S DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH,
AND THE CREATIVE WRITING FACULTY
ANNOUNCE:

The Jett W. Whitehead Poetry Award

A prize of $500 awarded to the best poem written by a CMU student.

Eligibility:

Any CMU student, graduate or undergraduate, who has taken a creative writing course (ENG 294, 391, 392, 491, 492, 591, 592, 691, 692) during the 2022-23 academic year.

Deadline:

Submit entries to Administrative Secretary Megan Stevens (steve6ma@cmich.edu) by 5:00 PM on Friday, March 17th, 2023.

Entry Guidelines:

Each entrant may submit up to three typed poems of any length. Each submission must have a cover sheet with the author's name, CMU address, phone number and email address, the titles of each poem, and the number of the creative writing course taken during the current academic year (e.g., ENG 294). The contest will be judged by the creative writing faculty, and this year's special guest judge.

This prize is administered by the Creative Writing Faculty of the Department of English, in celebration of National Poetry Month, thanks to the generous sponsorship of Mr. Jett Whitehead and PoetryJett.com. (Go to www.poetryjett.com/PoetryPrize.html for more information on this prize.)
