

CMU WRITING CENTER CONSULTANT APPLICATION

Name _____ CMU ID# _____ Date _____

Campus Phone _____ Email _____ Campus Address _____

Home Phone _____ Home Address _____

Undergrad GPA _____ Degree Program _____ Status/Year _____ Major _____ Minor(s) _____

(If applicable): Grad GPA _____ Degree Program _____

1. List writing competency courses (e.g. ENG 101, 201 or equivalent) you have taken and the grade received in each:

Course	Grade	College/University	Instructor (if CMU)
ENG 101
ENG 201

2. List courses you have taken that included substantial writing:

Course	Grade	College/University	Type of Writing

3. List other courses that you feel might be relevant to your work as a writing consultant, e.g., education courses, linguistics or language courses, etc.:

Course	Grade	College/University	Description of Relevance

4. Briefly, indicate your other experiences, writing outside of class, training, employment, that you feel may be relevant.

5. Please respond (typed or handwritten) to the following question in 500 words or less:

Please introduce and explain the context for your writing sample (see submission item 4 below). What was the situation you were aiming to address? How is the piece indicative of your performance as a writer? What was your process in writing it?

Submit (1) this form, with responses to #5; (2) letter indicating preferred number of hours (min. 6 hours, max.15) and availability schedule (3) resume with names of three references; (4) writing sample, such as a paper for one of your college classes, to Dr. Daniel Lawson, Director of the Writing Center, lawso3d@cmich.edu.

Note: Intensive initial training along with ongoing training/meeting participation is required.

CMU provides students with disabilities reasonable accommodation to participate in educational programs, activities or services. For those with disabilities requiring accommodations to meet course and work requirements should first register with the office of Student Disability Services (Park Library, 517-774-3018, TDD #2568) before talking to the Director.