Recently, the federal government made additional funds available to colleges and universities to address financial hardships resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic. Central Michigan University will receive additional funding from the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund, also known as the COVID Student Relief Fund to assist students during these challenging times.

Support will be provided to CMU students who meet the following criteria:

- Enrolled at least half-time for Spring semester as of February 2nd, 2022, which is defined as:
 - Undergraduate students with at least 6 credit hours of enrollment.
 - Graduate students with at least 5 credit hours of enrollment.
- Submit the acknowledgement form by March 4th, 2022.
 - Funds are limited and submission of the form is not a guarantee you will receive the funds as they will be distributed on a first come, first served basis.

Starting Tuesday, February 8th, qualifying students can complete the acknowledgement form. Funds will be distributed within approximately 14 business days of completion.

Students have the option of applying the funds directly to their account balance. The remaining funds, if any, will process as a refund. If a student does not have an account balance, the funds will automatically process as a refund.

The COVID Student Relief Fund is a one-time award. Students who are Pell Grant eligible will receive up to $800.00, while all other students will receive up to $600.00.
