

Financial Responsibility Agreement

PAYMENT OF FEES/PROMISE TO PAY

I understand that when I register for any class at Central Michigan University or receive any service from Central Michigan University, I accept full responsibility to pay all tuition, fees and other associated costs assessed as a result of my registration and/or receipt of services.

I understand and agree that if I drop or withdraw from some or all of the classes for which I register, I will be responsible for paying all or a portion of tuition and fees in accordance with the published tuition refund schedule at <https://www.cmich.edu/offices-departments/registrar-office/registration-information-request-forms/drop-withdrawal-information>. I have read the terms and conditions of the published tuition refund schedule and understand those terms are incorporated herein by reference. I further understand that my failure to attend class or receive a bill does not absolve me of my financial responsibility as described above. I understand that I must adhere to University deadlines and procedures for dropping or withdrawing from courses and will be responsible for all costs of associated fees and tuition percentages when doing so.

METHOD OF BILLING

I understand that Central Michigan University uses monthly electronic billing notification as its official billing method which is sent directly to my cmich.edu email account. I am responsible for viewing and paying my student account by the scheduled due date. I further understand that failure to review my e-bill does not constitute a valid reason for not paying my bill on time. Billing information is available at Student Account Services and University Billing | Central Michigan University \(cmich.edu\).

BILLING ERRORS

I understand that administrative, clerical, or technical billing errors do not absolve me of my financial responsibility to pay the correct amount of tuition, fees and other associated financial obligations assessed as a result of my registration at Central Michigan University. This includes refunds I may receive as a result of a posting error on my account.

RETURNED PAYMENTS/FAILED PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

If a payment made to my student account is returned by the bank for any reason, I agree to repay the original amount of the payment plus a returned payment fee of $25.00 or the Tuition Payment Plan returned payment fee of $35.00. I understand that returned payments and/or failure to comply with the terms of any payment plan or agreement I sign with Central Michigan University may result in termination of the payment plan agreement, refusal of future payment plans, CMU involuntarily withdrawing me from all my classes and/or suspension of my eligibility to register for future classes at Central Michigan University. A prepayment hold may be applied to my account which requires payment in full for future registration.

In addition, if payment is not received within 5 business days, I understand that Central Michigan University may drop all current or future registered courses, pursue legal action, seek criminal prosecution, and/or assign my account to a collection agency (see Delinquent Account/Collection section for details).

DELINQUENT ACCOUNT/COLLECTION

Financial Hold: I understand and agree that if I fail to pay my student account bill or any monies due and owing Central Michigan University by the scheduled due date, Central Michigan University will place a financial hold on my student account, preventing me from registering for future classes, receiving transcripts or diploma.

Nonpayment of Tuition Charge: If tuition in full is not paid by the due date, a $100 nonpayment of tuition charge will be assessed to my student account (excludes Off Campus Programs).

Defaulted/Terminated Tuition Payment Plans: I understand that if I utilize the CMU Payment Plan available for tuition and other semester charges, and I default on the agreement, I will be assessed all late fees waived as part of the payment plan agreement. In addition, all holds will be applied to my account in conjunction with the past due balance. A prepayment hold may be applied due to multiple returned check payments.

Late Payment Charge: I understand and agree that if I fail to pay my student account bill or any monies due and owing Central Michigan University by the scheduled due date, Central Michigan University will assess a late payment in accordance with the university late fee policy found at <https://www.cmich.edu/offices-departments/finance-administrative-services/financial-services-reporting/student-account-services-university-billing/past-due-accounts> until my past due account is paid in full. By agreeing to this Financial Responsibility Agreement, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to this delinquency policy.

Collection Agency Fees: I understand and accept that if I fail to pay my student account bill or any monies due and owing Central Michigan University by the scheduled due date and fail to make acceptable payment arrangements to bring my account current, Central Michigan University may refer my delinquent account to a collection agency. I further understand that if Central Michigan University refers my student account balance to a third party for collection, a collection fee will be assessed and will be due in full at the time of the referral to the third party. The collection fee will be calculated at the maximum amount permitted by applicable law, but not to exceed 28% of the amount outstanding. For purposes of this provision, the third party may be a debt collection company or an attorney. If a lawsuit is filed to recover an outstanding balance, I shall also be responsible for any costs associated with the lawsuit such as court costs, attorney's fees and/or other applicable costs. Finally, I understand that my delinquent account may be reported to one or more of the national credit bureaus.

Dropping of Classes for a Past Due Balance: On August 1 of each year, any student that has a past due balance of $200 or greater and is registered for classes in the upcoming academic year, will be removed from all course registered for that academic year. All students will receive prior notification of the deletion after the July billing statement has been issued (approximately the first week of July). If the past due balance is not brought current before August 1, registration from the courses will be deleted. Spring and Summer semester classes may be dropped if the student has a past due balance owed prior to the start of each semester. The student will receive an email notification at least 20 days prior to the drop date, indicating that the past due balance needs to be paid in order to avoid being dropped from the classes.

Withholding Financial Aid for a Past Due Balance: To stay in compliance with the regulations set by the Department of Education, any student with a past due balance of $200 or more from a previous academic year, may have a hold placed on their pending financial aid until the past due balance is under $200.00.

Suspension of Campus Services: Central Michigan University reserves the right to suspend campus ID privileges at any time due to a past due balance greater than $100, including but not limited to meal plan, computer lab, library, bookstore, and flex plan privileges. Parking Services may tow or place a boot on any car that has unpaid parking tickets (care owner responsible for associated recovery fees). If campus ID privileges are suspended, the student is still responsible for any outstanding balance owed to the University and no refund will be given.

Pre-Payment Hold: CMU reserves the right to place a pre-payment hold on any student account where the student exhibits a poor payment history. This pre-payment hold will require advance payment in full prior to registering for any courses. Other departments on campus may also require pre-payment prior to any purchase or service.
