

LETTER OF AGREEMENT
BY AND BETWEEN CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY AND
CENTRAL MICHIGAN COMMAND OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

---

Central Michigan University ("CMU") and Central Michigan Command Officers Association ("Union") are parties to a collective bargaining agreement ("Agreement") expiring June 30, 2028.

1. Current terms of the Agreement govern paid leave availability for, and use by, bargaining unit members.
2. CMU has approved three additional closure days as follows: December 22, 2025; December 23, 2025; January 2, 2026.
  - a. For sergeants: Bargaining unit members shall receive 24 hours added to their holiday bank, which will be governed by the terms and conditions of the collective bargaining agreement relating to holiday bank hours.
  - b. For lieutenants, items b – d will apply: Pay for the three additional closure days noted above will follow standard CMU pay practices for university closures.
  - c. Lieutenants who would not normally be scheduled to work on a closure day may take an additional paid leave day in lieu of the closure day.
  - d. Lieutenants who work in 24-hour operations or who are required to work on a closure day shall receive their regular rate of pay for all hours worked during the closure day and will receive equivalent additional paid leave time for each hour worked on the closure day, which must be used within one year of earning.

This agreement is entered into in good faith by all parties and will not otherwise serve to amend or modify existing terms and conditions of the Agreement.
