SUBJECT: PROCEDURES FOR THE SELECTION OF A PRESIDENT

The Procedures for the Selection of a President as amended and dated April 23, 2009, are adopted as stated below.

Procedures for the Selection of a President

When the Board of Trustees determines that a president is to be selected, the following procedures will be followed.

1. The chair of the Board will notify the following persons of its intent to conduct a presidential search:
  - a. Provost
  - b. Chairperson, academic senate
  - c. President, alumni association
  - d. President, student government association
2. The Board will appoint a university screening committee of no fewer than eleven and no more than thirteen members:
  - a. Four trustees elected by the Board, one whom will be appointed screening committee chair by the chair of the Board.
  - b. Chairperson of the academic senate.
  - c. Chairperson-elect of the academic senate (or, if the chairperson-elect has not been elected, a faculty representative to the faculty-trustees liaison committee, selected by the Board of Trustees.)
  - d. One administrator.
  - e. President, student government association (or, vice president if the president will be leaving campus before conclusion of the search.)
  - f. President of the CMU Alumni Association.
  - g. A member of the general public.
  - h. Up to three additional people whose membership will help balance the committee may be appointed.
3. At the time a presidential search is to be conducted, the Board will establish presidential qualifications, charge the screening committee and establish appropriate procedures for the search.
