Required Documents to Include with your Application

1. Cover Letter

Your cover letter should include a rationale for applying for the Faculty Diversity and Inclusion Fellowship, including your ongoing commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion at CMU and in higher education. The review committee will be particularly interested in an assessment of the following: (1) your leadership skills and abilities, (2) your current career development and short and long-term career objectives, and (3) how you think the award might contribute to your career objectives and to positive contributions to the university. Please mention any proposed research or projects you hope to work on during the fellowship period and how they would advance diversity, equity, and inclusion.

2. Service History

Please list all leadership posts, including campus, Academic Senate, program coordination or supervision, professional societies, boards, community organizations, offices in professional societies or journals, or employment-related awards which would support your application for the Faculty Diversity and Inclusion Fellowship Program. Areas you might include: university service, professional service, outreach service as a representative of CMU, and leadership displayed in other civic and community service.

3. References

Please provide the name, title, address, telephone number and e-mail address of three people who have agreed to provide a reference for you upon request. This list should include the person to whom you report and one other administrator.

4. Curriculum vitae

Please include a current CV with this application for the Faculty Diversity and Inclusion Fellowship Program.
