

One-time CMU trademark permission

CMU trademarks and logos are generally reserved for use by CMU units, sponsored student organizations and licensed vendors only. But there are certain exceptions where individuals not affiliated with CMU may use the marks: They include:

- Cakes for celebratory events such as birthdays, graduations and weddings.
- Gravestones and funeral urns.
- High school graduation announcements and party invitations for students graduating from high school and planning to attend Central Michigan University.
- Graduation announcements and party invitations for students graduating from Central Michigan University.

This letter grants one-time-use permission to place a CMU logo or trademark on one of the above stated items.

Amy White
Design Director
University Communications
Central Michigan University

