June 23-27, 2024

The Office of Indigenous Affairs at Central Michigan University invite all Native American students interested in exploring life at college to apply for the week-long camp. North American Indigenous Summer Enrichment Camp (NAISEC) aims to expose young Native people to higher education and improve participants' understanding and perceived ability to succeed in a college setting. Native American students entering 8th -12th grades are eligible to apply.

The first 20 students who return completed applications will be accepted in to the program. Students will be housed in a residence hall and involved in activities within Central Michigan University's campus. Registration fee $25.

Why to apply

- •Academic Understanding proper note taking, exam preparation, using resources such as the library
- •Cultural Understanding receive lessons on Anishinaabe language, history, and current issues
- Preparing for College attend workshops with admissions, career services and financial aid
- •Critical Thinking students will be challenged to look at issues from multiple perspectives rather than one
- •Learning Community students will work on team building skills and will understand the value of working together

PLEASE COMPLETE ALL SECTIONS AND RETURN THE APPLICATION BY MAY 20

CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY INFORMED CONSENT AND RELEASE SAFETY GUIDELINES

- 1. It is expected that all SAC policies be followed. It is also expected that you will follow any/all instructions provided by SAC student or professional staff. Participation in any/all activities at the SAC is "at your own risk" basis.
- 2. Swimmers must recognize their own limitations and act in the best interest of their own safety. Lifeguards may ask swimmers to demonstrate their swimming ability. No diving is allowed in the SAC pool. Commercially made swimwear must be worn and showers taken prior to swimming or using the spa.
- 3. Spa and sauna usage: Persons suffering from heart disease, diabetes, high/low blood pressure should not enter the spa or the sauna. Those who are under the influence of alcohol, anticoagulants, antihistamines, vasoconstrictors, and/or tranquilizers should use the spa and sauna with extreme caution. Pregnant women are not allowed to use the spa or sauna.
- 4. Individuals using the Fitness Center will operate the equipment and exercise at their own risk. If you feel ill, dizzy, light headed, or faint, you should stop exercising. It is your responsibility to use the equipment correctly or ask for instructions for proper use.
- 5. The SAC does not take responsibility for any items lost or stolen. It is recommended to keep any valuables, including coats, secured.

The participant's utilization of Central Michigan University's facilities, which includes the Student Activity Center/Rose Center, plus the Intramural Outdoor Field Complex, is at their sole discretion and at their own risk. The participant acknowledges that their utilization of the facilities carries with it the potential for death, disability, or other serious injury. The participant hereby assumes all risks of utilizing the facility, or participating in any University Recreation program. The participant waives, releases, and discharges Central Michigan University, its Board of Trustees and employees from claims, actions, damages, and liability for personal injury or damage relating to their use of the facility, except where the injury or damage is caused by the sole negligence of Central Michigan University.

The participant, (parent/guardian if applicable) has read the above safety guidelines and informed Consent and Release and understands and agrees to its content.
