

2026-2027 CONSORTIUM AGREEMENT

What is a consortium agreement?

A consortium agreement is a binding contract between eligible schools which enables you to receive financial aid from Central Michigan University (CMU) while being enrolled as a guest student at another school. Central Michigan University is considered your home school and the school you are visiting is referred to as the host school.

Student Checklist:

- ☐ Complete section I and have an academic advisor complete section II. Section III must be completed by the host school and returned to CMU's Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid (OSFA) to complete section IV.
- ☐ This completed form must be submitted to CMU's OSFA by the end of the first week of CMU's semester.
- ☐ Submit a copy of your academic transcript from the host school to CMU's OSFA within 14 days after semester ends.

Student Certification-

I have read and agree:

- I will only be eligible for financial aid for the courses approved by my CMU academic advisor listed in section II. Courses must be accepted by CMU to fulfill graduation requirements.
- I will comply with CMU's and the host school's policies regarding refunds, impact of drops and withdraws, Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) and all other eligibility requirements.
- I will notify both institutions if I drop or withdraw from any of my courses. I understand that my financial aid award is based on enrollment which will be verified at the end of the semester. I understand that enrollment adjustments can result in balances due at one or both institutions.
- I understand that SAP will be impacted if I do not successfully complete my courses or if I do not provide my host school transcript to CMU.
- I understand institutional tuition-based funds cannot be applied to coursework taken at the host institution.
- I understand I must be enrolled in at least 6 UG credit hours to be eligible for federal student loans.
- I understand that my financial aid will be disbursed based on CMU's disbursement schedule. If the host school's enrollment fees are due prior to my financial aid disbursement, it is my responsibility to pay them in a timely manner.
- I will allow CMU and the host school to share information related to my enrollment and financial aid eligibility.
