Federal regulations require schools to confirm that a borrower meets certain requirements to be eligible to borrow a Direct Federal Parent PLUS loan.

To be eligible to borrow a Federal Parent PLUS Loan, the borrower must:

- Be the biological parent, legally adoptive parent, or the stepparent (who reported information on the FAFSA)
- Be a US Citizen or have a legally approved residency status
- Not be in overpayment on any federal student aid
- Not be in default on any federal student loans
- Have not cancelled any prior federal loans for total and permanent disability
- Not have any federal government judgment lien(s) on any property
- Not currently incarcerated

My relationship with the above student is: _____
(Biological parent, legal adoptive parent, eligible stepparent, or other)

By signing this form, I am certifying that I meet all the requirements listed above to be an eligible Federal Direct Parent PLUS loan borrower. I affirm that all information on this form is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. If requested, I agree to provide documentation to support the information I have provided on this form. I understand that any false statements or misrepresentations may cause denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial aid, and I may be subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both, under provisions of the United States Criminal Code.
