Who should submit this form?

Dependent students who have unusual circumstances that exist that may warrant reconsideration of financial aid eligibility. These special circumstances may be either changes that have occurred in your family since you filed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or unusual family circumstances not accounted for on the FAFSA. NOTE: Filing this appeal does not guarantee additional financial aid.

When should this form be submitted?

Please submit all documentation relating to your special circumstance appeal at least 4 weeks prior to the end of term to ensure our office has enough time to review and process. All appeals must be completed prior to the end of the semester for aid eligibility purposes. Incomplete forms or missing appeal documentation will be denied.

What circumstances qualify for a dependent special circumstances appeal?

The situations outlined on this form are circumstances that normally qualify a student to file a Special Circumstances Appeal. If your circumstance does NOT fit into one of the situations listed on this form, you may still file the Special Circumstances Appeal and attach a detailed letter explaining your situation. Provide documentation to support your circumstance and attach all required forms.

Who should not complete this form?

Do not complete this form if your family income for 2025 and/or 2026 will be more than 2024, if you have not filed the FAFSA, or if your Student Aid Index (SAI) is zero or less; as indicated on the results of your FAFSA.

Please check the box(es) next to the situation(s) that apply to you.
