Summary:

The information contained in this document summarizes the data collected from those undergraduate students who graduated from Central Michigan University in August 2018, December 2018, and May 2019. These three groups constitute a total of 3,931 graduates. Of these graduates, 831 completed the First-Destination Survey online, resulting in a response rate of 21% of the graduating class. The respondents had a higher GPA than the graduating population (3.32 vs. 3.24) and consisted of more females (66.2% vs. 58.1%). There were no significant differences in race/ethnicity between the respondents and the graduating population. Based on the results of the survey, 72.8% of respondents are employed either full- or part-time six months after graduating from CMU, while an additional 16.0% chose to continue their education.

Question 8b: “Other” responses are included in the Chart below:

"Other" Reasons for not working in a field related to major at graduation

Waiting for the right opportunity

Took first job offer from previous employer

Out of 50 job applications, only 1 (my current job) company offered me a job.

No one told me that there are no CTRS jobs in Michigan 😞. My current employer asked why no one at CMU told me about this

No on the job experience

Moving to a different city soon, looking for a job in my field

make too much money at current job

living abroad

Just a summer job until the fall

I need to shift work to help care for my children. My desired (eventually) job is business hours only.

I graduated in education and have been hired to teach 4th grade but teachers don't work in the summer

I am working at a restaurant in Houghton, MI while my husband finishes his undergraduate degree. I will be looking for a job related to my degree once we move downstate and get settled.

Haven't found a job in my field yet

Had an opportunity to work for the Walt Disney company

Couldn't immediately find a job in my field. I settled, no fault to CMU.
