Section II
(Please type)

This scholarship program recognizes and supports students who, through past activities and educational aspirations, have indicated a commitment to working towards the betterment of Native American communities. Careers and academic tracks such as anthropology, cross cultural communication, economic development, education, health services, social work, tribal leadership and other related fields will be given priority.

In essay format, please answer the following questions:

1. Describe an experience you've had which has strengthened your commitment to Native American issues. (Please include how you would continue your commitment to Native American Issues at CMU)
2. Describe the ways in which your academic and career goals reflect the spirit of this award.

Section III
Letter(s) of support

A letter of support from tribal agencies and/or community organizations must be attached to support your application.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. All sections must be complete in order for the Native American Advancement Scholarship
2. Grade point average of 2.5 or higher
3. Participation in school and/or community activities
4. Demonstrated involvement with Native American issues
5. Content and style of the essay
