

SUMMER 2019 - REGISTRATION APPOINTMENT TIME SCHEDULE

To register, access CentralLink at (<https://CentralLink.cmich.edu>)

CentralLink is available 7 days a week, 24 hours per day.

▽ ▽ ▽ IMPORTANT NOTICES ▽ ▽ ▽

Students are expected to register for classes that meet their own academic program. Enrolling in courses to Asave@ them for another student is prohibited. Refer to the General Information section of the Class Schedule for further information.

To determine the day and time that you are allowed to register, add the total degree credit hours (does not include classes beginning with "0" i.e. 099, 055, etc.) earned on your CMU transcript, plus your CMU credit hours currently in progress.

For new transfer credits to be considered in this total an official transcript that has been mailed directly from the issuing institution must be received by the CMU Registrar's Office at least two weeks prior to your appointment time. Credits currently enrolled in at other colleges/universities will not be considered toward the determination of hours for your appointment time.

Central Michigan University offers the earliest registration appointment times to all active military personnel, certified veterans and those deemed eligible for VA benefits by the Dept. Veteran Affairs. Central Michigan University also reserves the right to permit other approved student populations earlier registration appointment times as designated.
