

For Staff Postings only

Starting salaries/wages for most staff employees are based on the pay level of the position, the qualifications of the individual, and the external and internal market. In some cases starting salaries/wages for staff are established by union contract. Please see the following link for additional information.

<https://www.cmich.edu/fas/hr/Documents/staff-salary-schedule.pdf>

In addition for most staff positions, CMU provides a healthcare package, life insurance, an excellent retirement program with tax deferred investment options, tuition waiver for employee and family, paid holidays, sick leave and vacation and competitive salaries in an environment committed to excellence and customer service.