In this issue:

- September 2013
  - (last week deadline)

  Our Front Porch Live Concert

  Upcoming Speaker Series

  Saturday Shows Series

  Recent Blog Post

  The Provenance of the John Greenleaf Whittier Papers

  Historic Photos of the Week

  CMU Football

---

Our Front Porch Live Music Performance

In collaboration with the Wheatland Music Organization, Clarke Historical Library will host a live music performance by Billy Strings and Friends. The event will take place on Tuesday, September 24, at 7:00 pm in the Park Library Auditorium. A reception will follow in the Clarke Historical Library auditorium. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased at Ticket Central.

Fall Speaker Series

In celebration of the 200th anniversary of the abolitionist, poet, and essayist John Greenleaf Whittier’s birth, Clarke Historical Library has been working with the CMU Libraries and the CMU Alumni Association to bring historical photos of the campus, notable events, student newspapers, football programs, and photographs documenting the history of Central Michigan University. The series will be accessible to users around the World (October 29). Keep up to date with the Clarke Historical Library News and Notes for every historical picture, every week.

Historical Central Gridders

Our exhibit celebrates the donation of this treasury of football photos of the 1902 Central football team, who went undefeated (4-0-0) and student life to the public once a week via Facebook. This week’s photo is of the 1902 Central football team, who went undefeated (4-0-0) and student life to the public once a week via Facebook.

Recent Investigation into the Provenance of the John Greenleaf Whittier Papers

The Clarke has been working with the CMU Libraries and the CMU Alumni Association to bring historical photos of the campus, notable events, student newspapers, football programs, and photographs documenting the history of Central Michigan University. The series will be accessible to users around the World (October 29). Keep up to date with the Clarke Historical Library News and Notes for every historical picture, every week.

Historic Photos of the Week

Pictures of the Week will feature photos of significant historical events and figures. The Clarke Historical Library celebrates the donation of this treasury of football photos of the 1902 Central football team, who went undefeated (4-0-0). In this week’s photo, the Clarke will feature photos of significant historical events and figures.

CMU Football

Beginning September 6, one game each week is gearing up for classes to begin. To celebrate, the Clarke Historical Library will be open Saturday mornings from 9 am to 1 pm. Stop in to browse our current exhibit, use the Clarke resources to further your engagement with international affairs, and have a conversation with us about the Clarke Historical Library. The Clarke Historical Library will be open Saturday mornings from 9 am to 1 pm. Stop in to browse our current exhibit, use the Clarke resources to further your engagement with international affairs.