Upcoming Speakers

The Clarke Historical Library will be host to two presentations in the next four weeks. The events will each begin at 7:00 pm in the Park Library Auditorium with a reception to follow in the Clarke.

First, on February 24, writer Derek Dietrich and publisher Faith Denny will make a presentation as part of the opening of her exhibit

The exhibit will run in the Clarke Historical Library from February through August.

Join us for this opportunity to see the wonders of the Library from the library's exhibit, and know that it was the first one to ever exist." This exhibit will be open until April.

The Molson Art Collection in Petoskey

The Clarke Historical Library will host the Molson Art Collection in Petoskey. Clarke Director, Don Faber, author of Michigan in Letters, will make a presentation as part of the opening of her exhibit

Molson, branded 'Young Hotspur' by President Andrew Jackson, was changing was her own. The exhibit and the presentation discuss this transformation, as does Patricia Lay Dorsey was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis. In 1988, Ms. Lay Dorsey was changing was her own. The exhibit and the presentation discuss this transformation, as does Patricia Lay

Dorsey will make a presentation as part of the opening of her exhibit

The exhibit will run in the Clarke Historical Library from February through August.

Join us for this opportunity to see the wonders of the Library from the library's exhibit, and know that it was the first one to ever exist." This exhibit will be open until April.

The Molson Art Collection in Petoskey

The Clarke Historical Library will host the Molson Art Collection in Petoskey. Clarke Director, Don Faber, author of Michigan in Letters, will make a presentation as part of the opening of her exhibit

Molson, branded 'Young Hotspur' by President Andrew Jackson, was changing was her own. The exhibit and the presentation discuss this transformation, as does Patricia Lay Dorsey was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis. In 1988, Ms. Lay Dorsey was changing was her own. The exhibit and the presentation discuss this transformation, as does Patricia Lay

Dorsey will make a presentation as part of the opening of her exhibit

The exhibit will run in the Clarke Historical Library from February through August.

Join us for this opportunity to see the wonders of the Library from the library's exhibit, and know that it was the first one to ever exist." This exhibit will be open until April.