
STRATEGIC PATHWAY 5

AGENDA

FEBRUARY 14, 2020

GRAWN HALL 178

1-3:00 p.m.

Strategic Pathway #5: Redefine and expand our business model to include opportunities in lifelong learning, partnerships with organizations, and mid-career educational needs.

1. Review Committee Charge and outcomes for today

Committee Charge:

√* If necessary, recommend any minor edits and/or clarifications to the descriptor for the pathway;

Submitted for review 1/31/20: Strategic Pathway #5 Revised Draft Definition: Redefine and expand our business model to increase partnerships with organizations and help individuals advance lifelong learning and achieve career development goals.

* Establish overarching strategic objectives that will define CMU in 2030 relative to the pathway;

→* Ensure that there are appropriate processes to proactively engage campus and community stakeholders in the discussions and idea generation for the strategic objectives; and,

* Recommend short-term benchmarks (goals and objectives that can be reached within one to three years) to be used as measurements of progress.

2. Define Stakeholders

3. Identify processes to engage campus and community stakeholders and expand idea generation. Discuss breaking into groups to focus more deeply on lifelong learning, partnerships, career development needs/goals.

4. Discussion of calendar and upcoming meetings

Reminders:

Next Meeting – February 21st 1-3:00 p.m.

Pathway dinner with the President and Mrs. Davies (5:30-7 p.m./President's Residence) – March 2, 2020