

CMU Honors Program Protocol Requirement Checklist

	Requirement	Course Taken	9 credits of HON or H-designated courses needed at the 300 level or above (in addition to HON 499) <small>Place a ✓ for each course at 300 level or above</small>	Place a checkmark (✓) if requirement is met? <small>All courses must be completed with a B- or higher</small>
1	HON100: Fall semester of freshman year	HON100 (3)
2	Honors Seminar: Fall semester of freshman year <small>Honors first-year seminars are also UP courses that satisfy the general education Writing Intensive requirement. Options include: HON201, HON202, HON203, HON204, HON205, HON206, HON207, HON208 and HON209.</small>
3	ENG201H: Spring semester of freshman year	ENG201H (3)
4	At least an additional 15 credits of Honors coursework before graduation from CMU (in addition to HON499) <small>Honors coursework is defined as HON courses, H-designated courses, and Honors Contracts successfully completed. Honors Contracts may be used to fulfill a maximum of 6 of these 15 credits, with the approval of the Honors director.</small>	()		Classes cannot be counted in both Categories 4 and 5
		()
		()
		()
		()
5	A minimum of 6 credits of Cultural Diversity <small>Diversity courses can be any of the following at the college level:</small> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Study abroad courses for CMU credit • CMU world language courses (AP, CLEP, dual-enrollment, retroactive credit and courses at other colleges do not fulfill this requirement) • CMU American Sign Language courses (ASL101 or above) • Honors Cultural Diversity classes approved by the Honors Council 	()
		()
6	120 service hours while a student at CMU			Categories 6-7 must be approved by the Honors Program
7	Completion of an Honors Capstone Project Proposal <small>The Capstone Project involves research or a creative endeavor conducted with a faculty advisor from the student's major or minor discipline. Students are encouraged to begin planning for the Capstone Project during their third year of study at CMU. Proposals must be approved by the Capstone Project advisor and the Honors Program Director. The Capstone Project Proposal is due on or before the last day of class of the Spring semester of the student's third year.</small>
7	Completion of an Honors Capstone Project and simultaneously enroll in HON499 (3-6 credits)* <small>The completed capstone project is due on or before the last day of class of the fall semester of the student's fourth year. Students are required to present work from their project in a public venue which may include professional conferences, public exhibitions, or the CMU Student Research and Creative Endeavors Exhibition. Submission of work for publication or juried exhibition are also encouraged.</small> <small>*HON499 can be taken as a writing intensive course if the proposal outlines it as such.</small>	<input type="checkbox"/> HON499 <input type="checkbox"/> Approved alternate capstone course: _____
		<input type="checkbox"/> Writing intensive <input type="checkbox"/> Non-WI
		<input type="checkbox"/> 3 credits <input type="checkbox"/> 6 credits

